Important Tax Information

Federal Tax-The Plan does not withhold Federal Income tax when processing this distribution; however, the distribution will be reported as ordinary income on the tax form 1099-R. The Plan cannot offer tax guidance. Please consult with your tax advisor on how to report this as a Federal exemption that may be available to you. Important State Taxes-Your state of residence may have differing tax requirements from the federal exemption. If your state mandates that state taxes be withheld at the time of processing this distribution that will be reflected in the net amount of the distribution check which in turn may result in less than the amount owed being sent to your insurance carrier.

Authorization on next page.

Authorization

I certify that I am a qualified public safety officer because I worked as a police officer, firefighter, correction officer, parole officer, probation officer or a member of a rescue squad/ ambulance crew and I attained retirement age or retirement due to disability. I understand that I may be subject to civil and criminal liability for any false statements on this form or any papers attached to or related to this form/claim.

I understand these payments are subject to a $3,000 per calendar year maximum, will be distributed pro-rata from all of my pre-tax deferred funds and these payments cannot be distributed from any ROTH funds I may have. I understand the Plan must verify my termination date prior to processing my request. In addition, I understand that there are two payment options available and if I choose to have the payments payable and mailed to me, it is my responsibility to ensure the payments are forwarded to the insurance company by the due date.
